

“Kindness”

(Songwriter: Rafael Machuca - ASCAP)

(Publisher: Galaxy of Songs - ASCAP)

I wanna go where the light is
I got my foot stuck in the darkness
I wanna be where the fight is
I wanna kill'em with my kindness

I wanna go where the night lives
The "turn the water into wine" is
I wanna see where the line goes
A dirty mind and dirty windows

I wanna run with the raindrops
I feel the realness when my brain stops
I fell alone, single minded
We're more together than divided

I wanna go where the light is
I got my foot stuck in the darkness
Don't wanna be undecided
We're more together than divided
